

PRESS RELEASE

December 1, 2010

70 Years of Employment and Counting!

Insinger Machine Company of Philadelphia, PA honored Austin Rosenblum for his 70 years of employment with a reception on November 11, 2010. Mr. Robert Cantor, CEO, presented Mr. Rosenblum with a certificate commemorating his long-time service to Insinger.

Austin started working at Insinger when he turned 18 years of age, in 1940. While employed at Insinger, he served in the US Army during World War II and was stationed in Germany. Austin has been a driving force at Insinger and has been responsible for many of the product developments and manufacturing innovations that make Insinger equipment among the best in the industry.
